

Obituary – Gordon Godfree

Gordon Godfree was the Principal of the Lotome Teacher Training College in Karamoja, Uganda from 1961 to 1966. He was there with his wife Christine and two young sons, David and Andrew.

Gordon built up the College and ‘was an outstanding Principal’ according to Bishop Brian Herd. His work contributed to education throughout Karamoja. Like many former mission partners the Godfrees have faithfully prayed and supported Crosslinks ever since.

Gordon died in May 2009 after a long and debilitating illness. Another former mission partner from Karamoja, Stan Ablewhite gave an appreciation of the contribution of Gordon at the funeral.
